Lacan on Love: An Exploration of Lacan's Seminar VIII, Transference. by. Bruce Fink (Goodreads Author) 4.02 · Rating details · 63 ratings · 5 reviews. Quintessentially fascinating, love intrigues and perplexes us, and drives much of what we do in life. As wary as we may be of its illusions and disappointments, many of us fall blindly into its traps and become ensnared time and again.

As Lacan advises, we have to “ distinguish love as an imaginary passion from the active gift which it constitutes on the symbolic plane ” (Seminar I, p.276, my italics). That said, a condition of love is that these symbolic relations be subverted. Love entails what Lacan calls a “ veritable subduction of the symbolic ” (Seminar I, p.142). We should hear in this term ‘ subduction ’ its geological resonance – the pushing of one tectonic plate under another in the force their collision.

In this lively and wide-ranging exploration of love throughout the ages, Bruce Fink argues that it can. Taking within his compass a vast array of traditions from Antiquity to the courtly love poets, Christian love, and Romanticism, and providing an in-depth examination of Freud and Lacan on love and libido, Fink unpacks Lacan's paradoxical claim that love is giving what you don't have.
