Bak also discusses the yellow wallpaper and the narrator 's feelings towards it. At first, she just thinks it is not pleasing on the eyes. Then she becomes obsessed with it. She thinks that there is something behind the paper. She starts to see bars in the wallpaper – and even a woman behind the bars.

~~Introduction to Fiction Course: "The Yellow Wallpaper"~~

This word choice is interesting because I think it is meant to connect the woman in the wallpaper to the narrator. The woman symbolizes the narrator in regards to the fact that the woman in the wallpaper was described as feeling trapped and wanting to get out throughout the story, just as the narrator feels trapped in her own mind and life and wants to break free.
